

STEP INTO HEAVEN

THROUGH THE EYES OF ANOTHER Karen Nee
As a psychic medium, Karen Nee often receives messages of regret – deceased loved ones communicate that they're now able to see that they should have said or done things differently when they were still on Earth. In Through the Eyes of Another, Karen shows that you don't have to die to go through your life review. You can go through it now... before it's too late. Karen explains how writing different types of letters can help you see the 'bigger picture' of the way you're affecting those in your path. She takes you on a personal journey of how her life was transformed after she wrote these types of letters to her loved ones, and then goes on to demonstrate how you can do the same.

DYING TO BE ME Anita Moorjani

In this inspirational memoir, Anita Moorjani relates how, after fighting cancer for four years, her body was overwhelmed and began shutting down. As her organs failed, she went into an extraordinary near-death experience, where she realised her inherent worth... and the actual cause of her disease. On regaining consciousness, Anita's condition improved so rapidly that she was released from hospital within weeks, without a trace of cancer in her body, defying medical knowledge. She had the realisation that there are miracles in the Universe that she had never even imagined. In Dying to Be Me, Anita shares all she has learned about illness, healing, fear, being love, and the true magnificence of each and every human being. This book sings that we are spiritual beings having a human experience... and that we are all One.

ORDINARY SACRED
Kent Nerburn
These heart-awakening stories of family life, and a sense of community, of children's laughter or old men's tool sheds, resound with a deeper meaning that helps us to pause for a moment, and see spirit breathing through our lives. These brief glimpses of spirit manifesting in dusty streets and community circles, will touch your heart, awaken a sense of wonder, and bring spiritual meaning to everyday life. With poetic simplicity and a delightful lightness of being that makes it so easy to read, this series of observations from everyday situations, rings true with wisdom and insight, that helps us to appreciate the blessings of our everyday exchanges. A little book touched by grace. Eckhart Tolle says: 'Kent Nerburn reveals to us that which lies beyond the surface appearance of reality. His writings are permeated by stillness. In a world gone astray, they are of inestimable value.'

TOWARDS THE TRUE KINSHIP OF FAITHS The Dalai Lama
No country, no culture, no person today is untouched by what happens in the rest of the world, and globalization presents many challenges. The Dalai Lama understands that the essential task of humanity in the twenty-first century must be to cultivate peaceful coexistence. In this book the Dalai Lama shows how in our globalized world, nations, cultures and individuals can find opportunities to connect through their shared human nature. All faiths turn to compassion as a guiding principle for living a good life. It is the responsibility of all people with an aspiration to spiritual perfection to help develop a deep recognition of the value of other faiths, and it is on that basis alone that we can cultivate genuine respect and cooperation. Towards the True Kinship of Faiths is a hopeful yet realistic look at how humanity can embrace a harmonious future.

THE SHAMAN IN STILETTOS
Anna Hunt
When journalist Anna Hunt takes a break from her glamorous, high-powered job to live in Peru for three months, none of her friends take her seriously. A burn-the-candle-at-both-ends 29-year-old with a love of stilettoes, chocolate, fast cars and Sauvignon Blanc, she seems to have it all. But how will she manage in a Third World country? Anna's quest takes her from the wilderness of the Amazon jungle where she drinks ayahuasca, one of the most mysterious and potent hallucinogens known to man, to a passionate affair with Maximiliano, a disarmingly seductive and charismatic shaman who offers her the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to become his apprentice. Anna embarks on what is to be an exhilarating, life-changing journey of mysterious rituals and burning passion. Will she find the fulfillment and inner peace she craves? And how will she bridge her two worlds and bring the ancient healing arts home to 21st century London?
